

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION: MAKE IT FASTER AND MORE EFFECTIVE

25 September 2009
Consiglio Nazionale Forense
Via del Governo Vecchio, 3
Rome

AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ORGANISED BY

Italian Forum for Arbitration and ADR

13:30/14:00 Registration

14:00 Welcome speeches:

- Paolo Berruti, on behalf of the National Bar Council, Rome
- Cecilia Carrara (introducing Arbit), Legance, Rome

First session

International Arbitration: is it currently satisfying users?

Moderator: Domenico Di Pietro, Chiomenti, Rome

Key speakers:

- Loukas Mistelis, School of International Arbitration, Queen Mary, University of London
- Michael McIlwrath, Senior in-house Counsel, GE, Florence

Commentators:

- Loretta Malintoppi, Eversheds LLP, Paris
- Jan K. Schäfer, Allen & Overy, Frankfurt

Comments and questions from the audience

Coffee break

Second session

International Arbitration: make it faster and more cost-effective: the dramatis personae's point of view

Moderator: Andrea Carlevaris, Bonelli Erede Pappalardo, Rome

Discussants:

- The point of view of an arbitrator
Piero Bernardini, Ughi e Nunziante, Rome
- The point of view of an end user
Mauro Gigante, General Counsel, Finmeccanica, Rome
- The point of view of an institution I
Simon Greenberg, Deputy Secretary General, ICC, Paris
- The point of view of an institution II
Stefano Azzali, Secretary General, Milan Chamber of Arbitration, Milan
- The point of view of a counsel
Gianluca Benedetti, Baker & McKenzie, Rome
- The point of view of a mediator in "escalation" proceedings
Michelangelo Cicogna, De Berti Jacchia Franchini Forlani, Milan

Comments and questions from the audience

18:45/19:30 Cocktail hosted by Arbit