

MILAN
CHAMBER OF ARBITRATION

Resolution of commercial disputes

DRAFTING OF ARBITRATION AGREEMENTS

DO's and DON'Ts

An open forum for young practitioners

✓ 27 FEBRUARY 2014

4:00pm - 6:00pm

✓ Milan

Palazzo Turati, Sala Consiglio
Via Meravigli, 9B

click here to confirm your registration

✓ free of charge

Welcome

Stefano Azzali

Secretary General, Milan Chamber of Arbitration

Marco Perrini

Perrini Studio Legale, Rome, co-chair Arbit

Round-table

MODERATOR

Paolo Marzolini

Patocchi & Marzolini, Geneva

PANELLISTS

Jan-Michael Ahrens

Senior Counsel, Siemens AG, Erlangen

Marina Matousekova

Shearman & Sterling LLP, Milan and Paris

Giulio Giannini

Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, Milan

Giorgia Taurino

Case Manager, Milan Chamber of Arbitration

Closing Remarks

AN OPEN FORUM FOR YOUNG PRACTITIONERS

AN OPEN DISCUSSION AMONG YOUNG ARBITRATION PRACTITIONERS
AND THE AUDIENCE ON HOW TO DRAFT ARBITRATION AGREEMENTS

The Event:

The seminar will present best practices and pitfalls which may be encountered by users (in-house lawyers and external counsel) when drafting arbitration agreements. The whole discussion will be based on real-life examples with a view to engaging a lively discussion with the audience. The participants in the seminar will be encouraged to share their day-to-day experiences in an open forum.

Who should attend?

Young lawyers and in-house counsel involved or interested in arbitration.

Working Language:

English

Registration:

Online, email to be sent to Andrea Campilungo - Castaldi Mourre & Partners acampilungo@castaldimourre.com

Conference seats are limited; registration will be confirmed by email.

The event is free of charge.

Registration Deadline:

31 January 2014

Social event:

The seminar will be followed by a cocktail which will take place at the Armani Café, Via Manzoni n. 31, Milan. The cocktail will start at 6:30pm; further details will be communicated directly at the seminar.